The Nurturing Parenting Programs are a family-centered initiative designed to build nurturing parenting skills. The Nurturing Program features activities to foster positive parenting skills and self-nurturing, home practice exercises, family nurturing time, and activities to promote positive brain development in children birth to 18 years. Parents and children attend separate groups that meet concurrently designed to build self-awareness, positive concept/self-esteem and build levels of empathy; teach alternatives to hitting and yelling; enhance family communication and awareness of needs; replace abusive behaviors with nurturing behaviors; promote healthy physical and emotional development; and teach appropriate role and developmental expectations. Interested individuals are encouraged to attend these valuable classes. You may call 934-6575 x3151 for more information.
