

Pupil Count

Local Education Agencies shall maintain information on the number of students with disabilities, including students in charter schools, private schools and nonpublic/nonsectarian schools and agencies, who are receiving special education and/or related services. The information will be maintained in a management information system adopted by the SELPA. The information will include, but not be limited to, data required for the California Special Education Management Information System.

Legal Reference:

CALIFORNIA EDUCATION CODE

EC 56195.8 (b)