Regional Program Components

Regional Programs are comprised of all services and supports provided by the designated service provider. This includes education specialist teachers, paraprofessionals, program specialist, school psychologist, speech therapists and all other direct instruction services (DIS). This also includes all administrative program oversight, IEP compliance, and supervision of staff. Transportation services will be determined based on the student’s need and district of special education accountability. The provider may be GCOE or the DSEA.